- Each task has a level on the "Peri-ometer"
- Complete five tasks this half term. One of these must be a Peri-Peri Chicken up to target +
- The other four tasks can be from anywhere.
- Submit the tasks as you complete them each week.

Nando's chickens are fresh (never frozen) and are hatched and reared in Britain. They have Red Tractor status so they meet such a strict set of assured standards you could take 'em home to meet your mother!

Appetisers

Research three words from each of Buddhism and Hinduism. Be ready to tell your teacher what they mean.

Find a piece of art work that relates to Buddhism or Hinduism. Explain what you think it means.

Find a picture of an artefact in Buddhism or Hinduism and explain what it is.

Taste Sensations

More things we're famous for.

Create a piece of art work that represents Buddhist and Hindu beliefs about life after death.

Sides Pick a side. Any side.

Use one of these methods to create an information source about Gods in Hinduism and Siddhartha Gautama (the Buddha) in Buddhism.

Flame~Grilled PERI~PERI Chicken

What we're famous for!

Create a kids' booklet to introduce year 4 children to the basics of Buddhism or Hinduism. You need to include:

Lemon & Herb

Things that people in your chosen religion believe about God, life after death, how you should live your life, prayer.

Medium

Facts about what people in your religion do to practice their religion. Artefacts that they use in their religion and what they do with them.

Hot

Reasons why people in your religion believe what they do—examples of where they get their beliefs from. Key words relating to your religion and what they mean.

Extra Hot

An explanation about how people in your chosen religion might feel about: Life after death. The global community of believers in their religion. Their own identity as a member of their religion.

Burgers, Pitas, Wraps

We fill our freshly baked rolls, pitas and wraps with PERI-PERI chicken or delicious veggie goodness, along with a bit of salad.

Hinduism:

Watch this Mandir virtual tour and be able to tell the class all about it in lesson.

Buddhism:

Watch this video about Siddhartha Gautama and be able to tell the class all about it in lesson.

Something Special

We dare you - don't be chicken!

Create your own version of the "Conn Coffee" to test other people in your class what they have learnt about Hinduism and Buddhism so far.

Give each task a level, and make tasks harder to complete as they go along.

Make your tasks creative. Create a Help Hub for when people get stuck.

Create an answer sheet to mark your Conn Coffee on.
