

Homework 2: Create a memorial to the victims of 9/11. You need to include:

- Pictures.
- Your feelings about what happened.
- How you think people should treat each other in light of the events of 9/11.
- Reasons why you think it is important to remember 9/11.
- What you think the world has learnt from 9/11.

Homework 3: Research the effects of 9/11 on the world here:

<http://www.bbc.co.uk/news/world-14844727>

Complete the following table to explain the short, medium and long term effects of 9/11.

Describe the effect:	Length of effect:	Why do you think that it's a short/medium/long term effect?	Is it a positive or negative effect? Explain why:

Homework 4: Imagine that you were in charge of a country. Create a three colour mind map including:

Colour 1: Which laws would you put in place to make sure people don't commit acts of terror?

Colour 2: How would you treat people who were convicted of acts of terror?

Colour 3: What would you do to promote community cohesion?

Homework 5: Find out what community cohesion is here:

<http://archive.excellencegateway.org.uk/page.aspx?o=161273>

Create a poster or information booklet to explain what community cohesion is to year 4 pupils.

You need to include:

What community cohesion is as a definition.

An explanation of what the UK government does to help community cohesion in this country.

Reasons why you think community cohesion should be worked for.

Problems that might occur if community cohesion is not achieved.

What religious people might say about community cohesion and why.